TO : [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: The "Economic Intelligence Plan"

STAT

1. Attached is my copy of a document you have already received. I am a trifle mystified concerning its genesis and, particularly, its current status. It is clearly the fruit of [REDACTED] labors, but it is not entirely clear whether it has been approved by the DCI or is a "final draft" (as the cover sheet indicates) to be offered for his signature.

STAT

2. Would you please be good enough either to tell me what portions of this document I need to read or give me a summary of its salient points -- either orally or in writing. Also, do we have any problems with it that should be flagged to the DCI and/or is it something that should be stalled until [REDACTED] can cast an eye over it.
